In the primary election held in this judicial district yesterday Norman Jones of Greene county defeated Judge F. E. Baldwin of Morgan county by a majority of 2006 votes. The Republican nomination went to C. S. Andrus, a Springfield attorney without opposition.

While the vote measured by the Democratic party strength in the district was light it was nevertheless a large vote for a judicial primary. Notwithstanding the fact that the county was practically only for one year and that there is strong likelihood of a re-apportionment before the election in 1915, the contest between Judge Baldwin and Mr. Jones was a spirited one, and the campaign had been in active progress for a number of weeks.

The vote given Judge Baldwin in Morgan county was complimentary but it is true also that the Democrats of this county did not go to the polls as they should have done in an effort to nominate a man from this county. The total vote in this county was 2225 while in Greene county, where the total voting strength is much less, the vote was 2340. Of the six counties two were carried by Judge Baldwin and four by his opponent. It was the general impression during the campaign that the fact of Mr. Jones being a law partner of Congressman Rainey gave him some prestige throughout the district which he otherwise would not have had.

The vote in Morgan county was as follows, showing that Judge Baldwin carried all but two of the thirty one precincts.

MME. CAILLAUX RECITES DRAMATIC TALE BEFORE MAGISTRATE

As Climax to Story She Declares She Never Meant to Kill M. Calmette, but Only to Give Him Warning.

Paris, March 24.—"I never intended to kill M. Calmette; I wanted to give him warning."

This assertion was made by Mme. Caillaux as the climax of her dramatic story of the shooting and a recital of the events preceding the killing of the editor of the Figaro.

Mme. Caillaux's state of mind on the eventful day, her purchase of a revolver and the last act of the tragedy were set forth in detail by her today before the examining magistrate, Henri Bouchard, at the palace of justice.

"France and the republic have need of you. I do not want you to sacrifice yourself." Before going to the Figaro office Mme. Caillaux had left this note for her husband, who she feared, might commit an act of violence against M. Calmette.

The witness told of her cordial greeting by the editor when she reached the Figaro office.

"No doubt you know the object of my visit," she had said to the editor.

"No," replied M. Calmette. "Won't you sit down?" He then lighted a lamp and placed it near the desk.

"Frantic at finding myself in semi-obscure facing the man who had maligned my husband, my presence in the office known to all," Mme. Caillaux said, dramatically, "I drew the revolver, and taking careful aim, fired low."

"Yes," interrupted M. Bouchard, "I observed that two bullets lodged in the base of the book case. But how do you explain the wound in the chest of M. Calmette who was behind the desk?"

"I do not know. I continued to fire without noticing," said the witness.

"Are we to suppose that weapon followed M. Calmette around, in his efforts to escape?" asked the magistrate.

To this Mme. Caillaux had nothing to say.

M. Caillaux then told of the luncheon with her husband on the day of the tragedy, the consequent nervous excitement she suffered and the necessity of making a last effort to prevent the publication of the letters.

LECTURES TO GRADUATES ON ASPECTS OF WAR

Stanford University, Calif., March 24.—"It has been said that you can do almost anything with a bayonet except sit on it and that is exactly true of Mexico," remarked Dr. Norman Angell, the author, in lecturing today before the Stanford University graduates on various aspects of war.

"Of course," he continued, "you can go into Mexico if you like but you can't go there merely to straighten out the affairs of one side or the other. You've got to go there to stay or not at all."

As for the possibility of a Japanese invasion of America, Dr. Angell estimated, arguing from the men and the time it cost Great Britain to subdue the Boers, that it would cost Japan 47,000,000 soldiers and take a campaign of fifty years to subdue the United States. Such an outlook did not make invasion seem probable, the speaker thought.

THRONES OF FRANK TANNENBAUM'S FOLLOWERS BARRED FROM TRIAL

NEW YORK, March 24.—When the trial of Frank Tannenbaum, the youthful leader of the industrial workers of the world, was begun today throngs of his followers were refused admittance. Only those connected with the case were allowed in the room. The defendant led the mob of idle men that invaded St. Alphonsus church on the evening of March 4th. They demanded a place to sleep in the church. This was refused them and in the turmoil nearly 200 men and one woman were arrested. Tannenbaum is accused of participating in an act of unlawful assemblage at the church and with remaining unlawfully after having been warned by a policeman to leave. The prosecution expects to conclude its case tomorrow. EXTERNAL RELATIONS OF JAPAN UNAFFECTED BY RESIGNATIONS

Resignations of Members of the Cabinet Will Make No Change in Affairs of the Country Abroad.

Washington, March 24.—Carefully protected by the iron rule of custom against the vicissitudes of internal politics the external relations of Japan will remain unaffected by the resignation of the Japanese cabinet as a result of the disagreement of the two houses of parliament over the naval estimates. Consequently it is anticipated by the officials here that there will be no substantial change in the tone of the negotiations that have been in progress between the United States and Japan over the question of Japanese land ownership in this country. It was pointed out today that while they was a more or less urgent deal by the so-called jingoistic elements in Japan on the government for the adoption of a more aggressive attitude toward the United States that issue has been almost completely obscured by the uncovering of the naval scandals and nothing has been heard of late of the California land question in the Japanese papers.

Either of the two men named in the news dispatches as probable heads of the new cabinet, Saionji or Kato, are regarded here as conservative insofar as the foreign policies of Japan are concerned.

While the two men differ strongly in the political opinions the one representing the essence of the old Japanese clans and the other the progressive element, neither is regarded here as a finger or as likely to yield to popular demands for an over aggressive foreign policy.

Therefore the state department officials view the present crisis in Japan without apprehension as to its results upon pending negotiations.

FIGHTING CONTINUES AT GOMEZ PALACIO

REBELS SAID TO HAVE CAPTURED STONE RAILROAD ROUNDOUSE

Chihuahua, March 24.—An official dispatch received at 5 p. m. today says fighting continues fiercely at Gomez Palacio.

The rebels are said to have captured the stone railroad roundhouse and to be fighting from it. The rebels claim that the federal dead number 700. No report as to their own losses has been made public but it is learned that they have at least eighty wounded.

Reports Keep Juarez Excited.

Juarez, Mexico, March 24.—Rumors and "official" reports of the onward sweep of General Francisco Villa and his victorious rebels kept this city in a state of gratified excitement today, but the optimism was dashed somewhat by the receipt of the Associated Press dispatch from Chihuahua quoting an official dispatch to the effect that fighting continues at Gomez Palacio. It was announced officially in the course of the forenoon that this city, three miles from Torreon, was taken last night at 9 o'clock and that General Villa had ordered supplies sent direct to that city.

Next came word that General Eugenio Aguirre, Benavides had captured two federal couriers in Torreon itself. This information was conveyed in a private telegram from Col. Treveno, one of Benavides' staff officers, to his brother in Juarez. At this there was further joy, but it was nothing to the excitement occasioned when General Manuel Chihuahua and now in this city to greet General Carranza, received a private report that General Velasco, the federal commander at Torreon had surrendered.

General Chao accepted the report with reserve, however, and telegraphed to General Villa asking for confirmation or denial. After two hours he had received no reply.

The dispatch from the Associated Press staff correspondent at Chihuahua had something of a dampening effect on the spirits of the rebels, but it gave rise to all manner of conjectures. It was the first direct news telegram of the day, but it was argued the official report quoted in it did not necessarily disprove previous reports of fighting in Torreon or even that Villa did not actually have Gomez Palacio in his possession last night. The report might mean, it was conjectured, that the federals as a part of the general battle, might have returned to Gomez Palacio and renewed the fight, while other forces were engaged in Torreon, three miles away.

WILL RELIEVE FINANCIAL STRESS.

Mexico City, March 24.—President Huerta's financial stress will be relieved by a plan adopted today which will bring into the treasury 100,000,000 pesos approximately, at the present exchange, which is practically three to one, $33,000,000 in gold. Fifty million pesos will be immediately available, the balance as required.

The plan involves the issuance of treasury notes against the unsold balance of bonds authorized in May, 1913, to the amount of $100,000,000 for a portion of which a Paris bank syndicate subscribed, but of which practically half remain unsold.

REPUBLICANS NAME C. H. BURKE FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

Defeats Candidate of Majority Faction in South Dakota Primary—Byrne Leads in Gubernatorial Fight.

Pierre, S. D., March 24.—Congressman Charles H. Burke, candidate for the minority Republican faction, was nominated for United States senator over Senator C. I. Crawford the majority faction candidate, according to incomplete returns from today's state-wide primary election.

While returns were slow particularly from the country districts, Congressman Burke's lead, obtained in the large towns of the state, continued to grow and at midnight the streets were aglow with bonfires in celebration of the apparent Burke victory.

The western half of the state was carried by Burke by substantial margins available returns indicate. Crawford campaign managers, while declining to make a statement, still hoped that later returns would swell the Crawford vote to victory.

In the gubernatorial fight early returns favored the minority candidate, H. B. Anderson, but later returns placed Governor Byrne, the majority candidate, in the lead.

BADING WILL OPPOSE SEIDEL.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 24.—Returns from Milwaukee's primary election up to a late hour tonight indicate that Mayor Gerhard A. Bading, non-partisan, and Emil Seidel, Socialist, will oppose each other at the municipal election on April 7 as candidates for mayor of Milwaukee.

David S. Ross who served the city two terms, is running third.

ARREST WALTER CAMPBELL ON CHARGE OF FALSE PRETENSES

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24.—Walter Greer Campbell of San Francisco arrested here today on charge of obtaining money under false pretenses has $2,800 cash to show for a fortune of probably three million dollars in his possession three years ago. Depredation of Mexican holdings and a lavish hand with half a million dollars in cash are said by the police to account for the rest of the money, although Campbell asserted tonight he had been betrayed by supposed friends. On the strength of his statement that he has a fortune in securities on the way from San Francisco the police allowed him to remain at a hotel under guard of a deputy sheriff.

ASSERTS SECOND AUTOPSY SHOWS MRS. SIMPSON KILLED HERSELF

Father of Woman, States, Powder Accidental as There Was No Reason for Suicide.

Chicago, March 24.—Dr. William H. Wilder, asserted tonight that a second autopsy on the body of Mrs. Laura Wilder Simpson, his daughter, had convinced him that she shot and killed herself. The body was exhumed at Lexington, Ky., where Mrs. Simpson lived, last Saturday and a second post-mortem examination was made by two medical experts from Chicago who were accompanied by Dr. Wilder.

They found from powder burns that the shot had been fired close to the head and undoubtedly had been fired by Mrs. Simpson herself. As there was no reason for suicide this, Dr. Wilder says, clearly indicates she came to her death through accident and clears up any mystery for all time.

Mrs. Simpson, a popular graduate of the University of Chicago was found dead in Lexington on February 22nd. A revolver was near the body. She was found by her husband, Laurence Simpson, and physicians declared she had been dead two hours. A coroner's jury returned an open verdict, which, with reports that the grand jury would investigate the case had a tendency to bring about the opinion that her husband was under suspicion.

A copy of the report of the examining physicians was sent to the coroner at Lexington.

KING'S INFLUENCE REINSTATES GOUGH

George Churchill and Seely Formed a Deliberate Plot to Coerce Ulster by the Employment of Troops.

London, March 25.—The Unionist morning papers fully admit that it was the king's influence which secured the reinstatement of General Gough and the other officers.

They express great indignation at the attack of the laborites on the throne and the army and take pains to explain that the labor men are under a misapprehension in supposing that the officers were so ready to fire on strikers. Among the many unconfirmed rumors published is the report that Colonel Seely, secretary of state for war has offered to resign.

The Morning Post and other conservative papers boldly assert that (rumormongers, George Churchill and Seely, formed a deliberate plot to coerce Ulster by the employment of troops and thus went beyond the intentions and knowledge of the prime minister and other members of the cabinet.

HAD EXTREMELY STORMY INTERVIEWS.

According to the Daily News Daily correspondent, General Gough secured a written guarantee only after a tenacious struggle and an extremely stormy interview in which Field Marshall Sir John French severely criticised the action of Gough and his fellow officers as meriting the severest punishment. Then Field Marshall Lord Roberts intervened and restored a calmer atmosphere. Determined efforts were made at first to get General Gough to accept a verbal guarantee. There failing a long document couched in legal phraseology was presented. General Gough objected saying they were plain soldiers and could not understand legal terms.

He then wrote: "Do we understand that we are not to be asked to bear arms against Ulster or to enforce the present home rule bill and we can return and tell our officers?"

Field Marshall French subscribed to this document. "Yes, this is so," and signed his name.

The same correspondent asserts that heavy siege guns were ordered to Ulster but the orders were suddenly countermanded and "the lamentable attempt to drag Ulster into the quagmire completely."

The Daily News which is a liberal organ reports that Colonel Seely has resigned but that his resignation has not yet been accepted and that the cabinet is likely to consider the question today.

REPORTS ARE DECLARED UNFOUNDED.

The Daily Telegraph has made inquiries regarding reports that both Colonel Seely and Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, are about to resign in response to liberal whip declared that both reports are unfounded.

The Daily Citizen, a labor organ, today openly ascribes the crisis to the interference of the king and the court and says:

"The king has interfered. He has been interfering all through for months. The court has been a conservative committee, in the activities of which titled women have been playing a leading part, headed by Lady Londonderry and who ever knows an army officer knows his susceptibility to feminine influence. Fortunately distinguished officers like Field Marshall French and General Paget have no part in the conspiracy and can be relied upon to do a soldier's duty, should the necessity arise."

"The government has displayed weakness apparently because it is trying to cover up somebody's blunder."

The Citizen yesterday hinted that Lady Londonderry had actually visited the Curragh camp to influence the officers.

The Times believes that the debate in the house of Commons today on the official documents will decide the fate of the secretary of war.

The Times says that evidence is accumulating to confirm the reports that the government's intended coup d'etat in Ulster was on a larger scale than the public is yet aware.

In an editorial the Times acquits Premier Asquith and "his more responsible colleagues" of any effective share "either in the conception or the mishandling of the Ulster plot."

The work on the triangular debate with Springfield and Quincy is going on, however, and by the end of the week the teams will be definitely picked to meet these two cities. The contests with Quincy and Springfield will be held April 17.

Thursday evening, April 2, has been fixed as the time for the preliminary in declamation. Eight high school pupils will take part in this contest which is to decide who will represent the school in the W. I. H. S. L. meet and in the Illinois Valley invitation meet at Griggsville. Miss Jeanette Taylor will assist Miss Scott in preparation for the preliminary contest.

The student conducted opening exercises at meeting with much favor. They include music, discussion of current events and scripture reading by high school pupils. At the exercises Tuesday morning a violin solo was played in a very able manner by Earl Briscoe.

At a meeting Tuesday afternoon of the Nautilus committee in conjunction with the business manager it developed that the publication was in good condition financially with forty dollars in the treasury and a number of debts outstanding toward which no effort at collection has been made.

Forty-one boys have signified their desire to come out for baseball and a committee has been appointed to investigate the desirability of adding this sport to the list of student activities. This committee, which is composed of Prof. T. P. Carter, Prof. Paul Morrison and Everett Reynolds will determine whether or not, in their opinion, such games could be played without detriment to the work in track and will look around for suitable grounds. Meyers Bros. have already offered to furnish the suits for the club and a number of other citizens have expressed an interest in the project.

"I shall stay where I am until the law sets me free."

Denied today the privilege of being transferred to quarters in a hotel or a home, she refused to accept liberty for a promise to quit the district offered by Colonel Verdekburg, in charge of the militia in Walsenburg district. She declared she would remain in custody until the state supreme court had ruled upon the constitutionality of her incarceration under the Moyer decision.

PHYSICAL COURAGE.

At 2 o'clock in the Morning is the Time to Test It.

It is at 2 o'clock in the morning that man's vitality is at its lowest ebb; all the physical forces are then at their lowest ebb, and every military man of experience knows that the "2 o'clock courage" counts. He knows that if a soldier is really brave at that hour he need never fear of his becoming a coward, as he is really a remarkable man.

A well fed man will fight better than a half starved man, whether he be civilian or soldier. And this is the same principle as the so called "2 o'clock bravery," for the half starved man lacks vitality, just as the average man lacks vitality at 2 o'clock in the morning.

If you are anxious to know just how brave you are make the test some morning at 2, when you hear burglars in your house. If you crawl under the bedclothes you are probably quite a normal man, but if you rise boldly from your bed, grasp the nearest weapon and sally forth to meet the robbers you are indeed a brave man and should be proud of yourself.

Any veteran of some great war will tell you that the most difficult test of courage is to be aroused from his sleep by the shrill blast of bugle and long roll of drums and ordered to charge an enemy unseen or only dimly seen at 2 o'clock in the morning. Marching into battle under the bright sunlight is not so difficult, and the seasoned veteran enjoys the thrill, but even the most hardened veteran feels "creepy" and uneasy turning out at 2 o'clock in the morning to meet the enemy amid the shadows of night, and this is solely because of a natural physical weakness at that hour and has nothing whatever to do with that mental weakness called "cowardice."—New York American.

LIFE ON HOLLAND'S CANALS.

Where Spring Cleaning is the Rule All the Year Round.

I think one may see barges and canal boats in greater variety at Rotterdam than anywhere else. One curious thing to be noticed as they lie at rest in the canals is the absence of men. A woman is always there, her husband only rarely. The only visible captain is the fussy, shrewish little dog which, suspicious of the whole world, patrols the boat from stem to stern and warns you that it is against the law even to look at his property. I hope his bite is not equal to his bark.

Every barge has its name. English suburban villas have not a greater variety of fantastic names than the canal craft of Holland, nor with all our monopoly of the word "home" does the English suburban villa suggest more compact coziness than one catches gleams of through their cabin windows or down their companions.

Spring cleaning goes on here, as in the Dutch houses, all the year round, and the domiciliary part of the vessels is spotless. Every bulwark has a washing tray that can be fixed or detached in a moment. "It's a fine day, let us kill something," says the Englishman; "Here's an odd moment, let us wash something," says the Dutch woman.

In some of the Rotterdam canals the barges are so packed that they lie touching each other, with their burgeses lying all in the same direction, as the vanes of St. Sepulchre's in Holland cannot do. How they ever get disentangled again and proceed on their free way to their distant homes is a mystery. But in the shipping world incredible things can happen at night.—From "A Wanderer in Holland," by E. V. Lucas.

The Chrysanthemum.

It is believed that the first specimen of the chrysanthemum known to have been grown in England—perhaps in Europe—was reared at the Botanic gardens, Chelsea, in 1764, and the flower's rise into popular favor in the nineteenth century was chiefly due to the good work done by the Stoke Newington Chrysanthemum society. This society held its first exhibition of blossoms in 1846, and served not only as a model for all similar associations, but also as a school of chrysanthemum culture for the whole world.—London Graphic.

Too Talented.

"Where is that barber who used to have the end chair?" asked the customer.

"We had to let him go," replied the boss. "He had too much talent."

"Whaddy ya mean—talent?" asked the customer.

"He got so he illustrated his stories with cuts when he was shaving people," explained the boss.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Will Delay Case's Decision.

An official announcement issued today by the interstate commerce commission indicating the likelihood of the taking of additional testimony in the eastern advance rate case as late as April 22 was accepted as making it quite certain that a decision of the case could not be expected before some time in May at the earliest and probably not until a short time before the commission adjourns for the summer, late in June.

To Consider Resolutions.

Senator Thomas of Colorado, chairman of the senate committee on woman suffrage, assured suffragist leaders today that his committee would take up for consideration in the near future the Bristow and Shadroth resolutions introduced last week after the defeat of the resolution providing for submission of a constitutional amendment extending suffrage to women.

Final Statement Made.

Final statements for those proposed for censure on account of activities disclosed in the recent lobby investigation were made today before the house judiciary committee. J. Easley-Smith spoke for Representative James T. McDermott of Illinois and James A. Emery, counsel for the National Association of Manufacturers, appeared in behalf of himself and other officers of the association. Mr. Easley-Smith made an exhaustive review of the testimony heard by the select committee and the report of that committee declaring that the report did not find Mr. McDermott guilty of any of the numerous charges made by S. M. M. Mulhall.

McDermott made mistakes," he said, "he committed indiscretions, he was even guilty of improprieties. But he has been punished enough. He has had his lesson. The report of the select committee finding him guilty of conduct 'unbecoming to the dignity of the official position' he holds has been sufficient punishment to him and sufficient warning to others."

The committee will take up the case for a final decision within a short time.

YOUTH IN OLD AGE

Possible With Proper Care.

A few generations back a man at 50 was considered old, gray-bearded, and waiting for death. Note the change today; at a meeting of the Medico-Legal society it was stated that a man of 50 ought to have forty good years ahead of him and, thus at ninety he is in the fulness of maturity.

What if you have seen sixty, or even seventy birthdays—temperate habits, fresh air and exercise, with a simple diet and a sufficient amount of sleep will guard your health.

If perchance, your circulation is poor, if you become run down—weak and no appetite—nothing in the world will tone up those tired back-sliding organs—enrich the blood and create strength so quickly as our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol.

We ask every feeble, discouraged old person in this vicinity to try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction.—Lee P. Allcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

PASSAVANT HOSPITAL WILL BEGIN CAMPAIGN FOR FUND OF $125,000

Money Is Needed for New Building and Other Improvements---Trustees Decided on This Action at Meeting Tuesday Night---Mrs. Helen Brown Read to Give Concert as Opening Campaign Event.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of Passavant hospital last night it was determined to enter upon a campaign to secure $125,000 for a new building and other needed equipment. A great deal of enthusiasm was manifested by the board members and a spirit prevailed which made it very apparent that the work will be undertaken with a vim which will mean certain success. The services of W. A. Bowen, a man of vast resources and experience in such matters have been secured to direct the final part of the campaign. The marked success he has had in such undertakings in all parts of the country gives the best proof of his great ability.

At the opening event of the campaign the trustees are very fortunate in being able to arrange for a concert by Mrs. Helen Brown Read and the date for this splendid musical event will be announced soon. The committee to arrange for the concert includes Felix E. Farrell, Miss Ida B. Verner, Mrs. Kate Hicks, Hon. Prof. J. G. Ames and Albert C. Metcalf.

Passavant hospital is eminent among the institutions of the city. It is needless to go into particulars for the facts are only too well known already. The precious lives that have been saved there; the noble work for the sick and the afflicted is too well known to require any comment. As is well known the hospital has been feeling its way along for many years. It will be forty years next fall since the saintly Dr. Passavant first entered Jacksonville and began the work. The building was old and not at all equipped but the best that could be had. A new roof and pavement in front first demanded attention and after some changes in the interior the new wing was constructed. Then the remainder of the old building was made over and the work continued. But all the time the hospital has been growing and its work increasing and its accommodations have become more and more inadequate. The laundry work has been done under unfavorable conditions and the heating plant has become almost a thing of the past.

Time and experience have developed the need of better facilities for carrying on the work of the hospital but the management has felt in duty bound to wait for other local enterprises to secure funds before entering the field. These have had their day and now the hospital asks for its due. Passavant hospital is not merely a Jacksonville enterprise for it is far more. Its beneficent work extends into the whole of Morgan county and largely into adjacent counties and all these communities should take an interest in making the institution what it should be. It is essentially the work of the churches of the city and they will feel an interest in the new campaign.

Many new features for the hospital are desired such as tuberculosis wards or a separate building; a building for contagious diseases; separate and distinct from the other structures; better rooms for sun light and many other things will be suggested.

The work of educating the people as to needs will at once be undertaken and some months hence Mr. Bowen will be expected and the effort will be brought to a finish with a will. Mr. Bowen is a veteran at the business and has had wonderful success elsewhere and he can have it here.

As stated above Mrs. Helen Brown Read who has just returned from successes in Europe will give a grand concert at an early date. It is a good while since Passavant hospital has offered the people of Jacksonville an entertainment and this one promises to be one of the rarest enjoyed in a long time.

EDGAR S. SCOTT DIES SUDDENLY IN DALLAS

Former Resident of Jacksonville and President of the Franklin Life Insurance Company Succumbs to Attack of Heart Trouble.

Edgar S. Scott, a former resident of Jacksonville, and president of the Franklin Life Insurance company, died suddenly of heart trouble Monday evening in Dallas, Texas. Mr. Scott was in the best of health and had just returned from Modavia, Indiana. He was returning from a game of golf on the Dalls Links, in an automobile when death overtook him.

Mr. Scott was born in Jacksonville in 1866 and lived successively at Petersburg, Mason City and Auburn, Ill., and Garnett, Kan., where his father, Rev. E. S. Scott, a Baptist minister, held parishes. He went to Springfield in 1881 at the age of 15 years, to reside with his brother-in-law, Judge J. Otis Humphrey, at whose home he lived for many years. He was first engaged in a grocery store and when 19 years of age he secured employment at the First National bank and successively was teller at the Illinois National, a partner with Nathan Cole in the mortgage loan business and vice-president and president of the Franklin life. He was a member of the Sons of Veterans, actively engaged in the Springfield Associated Charities, an active member of the Central Baptist church and member of the Illini Country club and the Sangamo club. Bedouin Thief Trackers.

A curious profession among the Bedouins is that of the "thief trackers." Being without paddocks or stables and their animals always more or less at liberty, theft of stock would appear to be an easy and frequent matter. Each tribe, however, has its little company of "trackers," and it would be either a bold or an ignorant man indeed who ventured to interfere with an Arab's live stock. There was one instance in which a camel stolen from a camp near Ismailia was, after weeks of labor, successfully tracked to the Sudan, where the beast was recaptured and summary vengeance wreaked upon the robbers. Selected for natural ability and trained from boyhood to discriminate between each animal's footprint, this faculty becomes so highly developed that a particular horse's or camel's trail is unerringly picked up from among the thousands of impressions on the dusty highway.

Winning a Thousand.

Some years ago a jewelry firm in New York sent the late J. P. Morgan a fine pearl, offering it to him for $5,000. This Mr. Morgan decided to purchase, and two checks were made out—one for $5,000 and the other for $1,000. He then removed the pearl from its box and, having substituted for it the $5,000 check, resented the package. Mr. Morgan's clerk was next dispatched to the jeweler's with the sealed box and a note containing the check for $4,000, stating that Mr. Morgan would be pleased to purchase the pearl if they would be satisfied with the check. The unsuspecting jeweler—in ignorance, of course, of what the sealed package now contained—closed with the astute financier's offer. And the box in which the $5,000 check serenely reposed was returned to Mr. Morgan unopened.

Pounds and Weights.

Here is a question that will tax the arithmetical powers of a youth. Suppose that for some reason or another a shopkeeper who sold goods by pounds and half pounds, but never in quantities exceeding twenty pounds at a time, was told that he must transact all this business with four weights only. What must these four weights be? The answer is half pound, one and a half pound, four and a half pound and thirteen and a half pound. With these it will be readily seen that any weight from half a pound to twenty pounds may be determined in pounds and half pounds.

ONE very interesting thing about the suits for Spring is the variety in waistcoats; made without collar; with shawl collar or notch collar; usually rather high cut. You'll find them in Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes; just one of the many interesting little points that give these goods a characteristic smartness.

Pay at least $25 for a suit this Spring if you can; not for our sake, but for yours. We have them as low as $18.

We Keep Your Suit New!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently,—does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

New Year In Japan.

In Japan the New Year is welcomed with far more zest than in this country. One is expected to arise with the sun and don new clothes to meet the auspicious morning. Then he worships, performs obeisance to the spirits of his ancestors and pays homage to all relatives older than himself. No ordinary viands are consumed at breakfast. On every tray, covered with evergreen leaves and supporting a rice dumpling, are placed a lobster, oranges, persimmons, chestnuts, dried sardines and herring roe, all these dishes possessing allegorical meanings. This meal is the start of the festivities, which in olden times were continued for many days, business being almost entirely suspended. The idea of celebrating New Year's in such a manner is that the year is going to be the way it is started. Smile on New Year's day and you will smile throughout the year. Complain on New Year's day and you will complain all the year round. Weigh your anchor with merry song of heart and it will be smooth sailing all through the voyage. Begin right and you are bound to finish right. That is the Japanese idea of New Year's celebration.—Bulletin of the Japan Society.

FACE DISFIGURED WITH ERUPTION

Spread Over Entire Face. Itched and Burned Terribly. Heavy White Crust. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Made Complete Cure.

810 East Elm St., Streator, Ill.—"A running sore broke out above my right eye, which spread over my entire face. It started as a small pimple. I scratched it open and the contents of this small pimple ran down my face. Wherever this ran a new sore appeared. They itched and burned terribly. I couldn't touch my face it burned so. I disfigured my face terribly and I couldn't be seen for everyone was afraid of it. It looked like a disease of some kind; it was all red and a heavy white crust on it. Everybody kept out of my way, afraid it would spread. I lost rest at night and I couldn't bear to have anything touch my face, not even the pillow. I had to lie on the back of the head. I was always glad when morning came so I could get up. It was extremely painful.

"I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. At last I thought of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I commenced using them. I used the sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, one twenty-five-cent cake of Cuticura Soap and a half box of the fifty-cent size of Cuticura Ointment. It took three weeks to complete the cure." THE JUDICIAL PRIMARY.

In accordance with the vote cast at the election in the seventh judicial district yesterday Norman Jones of Carrollton becomes the nominee of the Democratic party. As the district is so heavily Democratic unless records of the past are shattered Mr. Jones will be elected the coming month and will serve as the successor of Judge Thompson until June 1915 when the regular judicial election is to be held.

Without disparagement of the nominee it is certainly a matter of regret from a Morgan county standpoint that Judge Baldwin was defeated. He has the legal ability which qualifies him for the post but the matter of greatest moment from a local standpoint was the securing of a resident judge. Lawyers are of one mind that it is a great inconvenience for this county to be without a resident judge and since the retirement of Judge Thompson there have been various instances to give point to their contentions.

While the general result in the district is no doubt a disappointment to Judge Baldwin he can find some consolation in the splendid vote he polled in his home county, defeating his opponent here by three to one. Any lawyer who has been in politics and practice for a considerable period is certain to make some political enemies and must fight some battles and the vote cast for him was something of a compliment. The fight he made was clean cut and in the open and leaves little to regret.

Mr. Jones was a particularly formidable candidate. He is personally popular in Greene county and the fact that he is a law partner of Congressman Rainey is said to have given him some influence throughout the district which would not otherwise have been his. He is also accredited with having the friend of Roger Sullivan and had other backing also because of certain alignments in the senatorial district wherein he lives, including the counties of Jersey, Greene and Macoupin.

The feeling is general that at the coming session of the legislature a reapportionment will be made and at that time Morgan county may become a part of a judicial circuit which will give the people here a better chance of naming one of the judges. The fact that the circuit court of Sangamon county is about a year behind with work and the added fact that there will be a great many cases taken there on appeal from rulings of the State Utilities Commission, makes it imperative that something be done to relieve conditions. It will be the natural thing to make Sangamon county a district by itself for Morgan and Sangamon might constitute a district, electing two judges from Sangamon and one from this county.

Morgan county residents will be glad to see a re-apportionment if by such a change there will come a better chance of having a resident judge.

If a union with Sangamon is proposed however there will be many to rise up and object on the theory that based upon experience Sangamon county would want to name all three judges. Morgan is now in the senatorial district with three members and the senator and all three members of the legislature are Sangamon county citizens. This condition is due partially to the inability of voters in this county to focus their interest on one candidate and partially to the great desire Sangamon county has to take all the offices in sight.

WILL FORM TWO PARTIES.

Bangor, Me., March 24.—Two great parties, one conservative and the other Liberal, will result from the political re-alignment now in progress in this country, declared Senator Moses E. Clapp, in a speech at the Progressive state convention here today. There is no fundamental line of demarcation between the Republican and Democratic parties at present, he said, and pending the inevitable new alignments, "I urge you to stand firm for progressive principles."

Statesmen BY WALT MASON

They do not sow, they do not reap, they do not shear the gentle sheep, or milk the sad-eyed cow; they do not till, they do not build, they do not in the noisy mill, nor guide the mule-drawn plow. We've heard them tell us we are grand, the bone and sinew of the land, and we have cheered and grinned; but words were all we ever got from all that smiling statesmen lot, for all they sell is wind. We take our produce to the store, and haul it twenty miles or more, to get provisions tinned; but statesmen get all things they need, the very finest goods indeed, and all they pay is wind. We work till we are halt and blind, and if we get a month behind, threats in our ears are din-din but statesmen do not work at all; they loaf in palace and in hall, and square the bill with wind. They drink the noblest wines of Spain, and eat butter of the Dane, and fruits from tropic Ind; the luxuries of every land are evermore at their command, and all they pay is wind. What chumps we are, to toil and strain, and worry till we go insane, supporting such a group of parasites, who live at ease while we are spinning our knees to get the children soup!

W. J. Doerflinger, foreman of the boiler shop, spent Sunday with friends in Springfield.

William Brainer of the blacksmith shop, has returned from Kansas where he went to see his mother who was ill and found her very much improved.

The shops were pretty well deserted yesterday but a job came in for the blacksmith shop, so foreman William Saner drew off his coat and went at it with a helper in fine shape and the way he made the sparks fly was a caution. When he is fully at himself and in practice he is about as good as any two ordinary mechanics and that is no disparagement to the other men either.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF THE 7TH JUDICIAL DIST.

An article appeared in the Journal of Jacksonville, issued Tuesday, March 24th, saying E. T. Ashley of Alton would be in the city to cast his vote for Judge Baldwin.

I wish to say I never was in favor of Mr. Baldwin's nomination and went to be registered among the good Democrats of this district as one who helped to defeat him.

ADVOCATES HORSEBACK RIDING AS EXERCISE

A reader of the Journal who believes in horseback riding has sent to the office the following clipping from the "Farmer's Home Journal" of Louisville, Ky., in which the writer strongly recommends this form of exercise.

"Mr. Harry M. Rubey, of Macon, Mo., writes to Missouri stockmen, 'I have made a business of horseback riding every day, rain or shine, warm or cold, for years, and as a result have not known what it was to be sick for thirty years. If every business man in this country would buy himself a good saddle horse and ride daily, one-half of the doctors would go out of business. My daily average is ten miles.'"

PRIMARIES IN ARKANSAS.

Little Rock, Ark., March 24.—One United States senator, seven representatives in Congress, a governor and other state officials, and many members of the legislature are to be named in the Arkansas Democratic primaries tomorrow. Usually, nomination is equivalent to election.

Senator James P. Clarke, who is a candidate for re-election, is opposed by Judge W. F. Kirby, an associate justice of the state supreme court. All of the present representatives in congress appear confident of re-nomination.

Governor Geo. W. Hays has no opposition for renomination and a number of the other present state officers are assured of being named for another term.

It is expected that the vote will be light as compared with that cast at the election two years ago, when Joe T. Robinson defeated Governor George W. Donaghey for re-election. The absence of any notable contest this year has resulted in a rather tame campaign, while the fact that many of the counties have already held their primaries for the election of county and local officers has added to the general apathy.

Most prominent among those mentioned for the nomination for governor are Halbert P. Gardner of Portland, the Maine representative on the National Progressive Committee, and Mayor A. W. Fowles of Auburn, the only mayor in the state elected on a Progressive ticket.

DEER FOR PARK NOW SEEM A CERTAINTY.

Commission Hopes to Be Able to Purchase Animals.

For a few days past efforts have been made to secure funds for a deer park at Nichols park and there is every indication that the project will succeed, the necessary amount being almost in sight.

There are to be three deer, a male and two females, and they are to be bought of Charles Stevenson of Little Indian and having been reared in captivity they will not be dangerous, but domestic animals and a very pleasant addition to the attraction of the park.

It is the intention to make the inclosure north of the chautauqua grounds and east of the lake along the eastern boundary leaving space for a driveway next to the fence and ten feet from the lake to accommodate fishermen and boat riders.

The deer will thus be in plain sight from the large pavilion or the refreshment stand and easy of access if any one wishes to get nearer to them. It is understood that they are not at all wild now and being in the park and meeting so many people they will doubtless soon be tame enough to eat out of a person's hand. There could hardly be a better attraction for the park while they are easily kept, eating about the same food as is given a sheep. They like cabbage leaves, apples, turnips, beets and the like in addition to hay, corn, oats and grass, so that the care of them will not be expensive as the hay will be grown on the park property and the inclosure will be large enough to supply them with grass a great part of the time.

Any person feeling willing to help a little will find grateful recipients as the park commission has no funds whatever it can devote to this purpose, needed repairs and work absorbing the income for the present year. The response for aid has been thus far kindly.

POULTRY CULTURE.

Article XXVIII.

Artificial Incubation.

The artificial incubation of the egg is a problem that is worthy of our best thought. In selecting eggs for hatching, very small eggs and those unusually large should be discarded. This is also true of those with rough or uneven shells as well as those with chalky shells and of light weight. The ideal egg for hatching is the one of average size, smooth shell, heavy specific gravity, and a strong germ. Such an egg, under favorable conditions, will hatch in 19 to 21 days. The incubator has come to stay. It is recognized as a necessity if early pullets for winter laying are desired. Heat for incubators is supplied by means of electric heaters or by means of kerosene. This hot water. The majority of incubators are heated by kerosene. This is unsatisfactory unless a high grade of oil is used. Many prefer a hot water system of heating, claiming that chicks hatched by this system are larger and more vigorous; that fewer die in the shell and that there are fewer cripples.

What Constitutes a Good Hatch?—Most breeders are satisfied with a 50 per cent hatch of all the eggs that go into the incubator, and if they are successful in raising to maturity 50 per cent of the chicks they consider themselves fortunate.

In running the incubator some advice keeping the temperature at 103 from start to finish. Others advocate 102 degrees for the first week and 103 to 104 degrees for the third week. Perhaps the second plan gives best results. Many advocate supplying moisture especially with the hot air machines, as this system of heating tends to evaporate the egg contents, and the presence of water will retard it, while water also unites with carbon dioxide to form carbonic acid which in turn decomposes the shell and prepares it for the process of hatching.

Marketing Eggs.—If eggs are to be shipped for hatching purposes they should be wrapped in soft paper, then wrapped in excelsior, and then packed in a basket that has been lined with excelsior. The basket should have a handle to insure careful handling. Eggs for market should be assorted and carefully packed. Commission men usually classify eggs as "rotten," "dirty," "cracked," "shrunk," "firsts," "prime firsts," "extras," and "strictly fresh." These grades are determined by a process of handling and special men are employed to accomplish this work at considerable expense.

It is claimed that the loss of eggs due largely to carelessness on the farm amounts to $45,000,000 annually. The farmer could save a large portion of this loss if he would assort his own eggs before they leave the farm, pack them carefully and ship only those that are really fresh.

The boom in poultry culture has become perennial. It is not local. It is nation wide and world wide. There are no signs that this universal interest in the hen and her products will grow less. The largest output we can possibly handle will be the wise program for the hatching season will grow less. The largest output is inexhaustible.—H. A. McKee, Secretary Illinois Farmers' Institute, Springfield, Illinois.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls—Try It! Hair Gets Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant at Once—No More Falling Hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Adv.

COMMISSIONERS CONFER ABOUT AUTHORITY TO LEVY POLL TAX

F. J. Heint Met With City Officers Yesterday to Talk Over Tice Road Law Provisions—Believe That Jacksonville Still Has Right to Collect Poll Tax.

The passage of the Tice road law and the recent issuing of a bulletin with reference to the abolishment of poll tax in road districts has caused some confusion in cities as to the authority of cities to collect poll tax. The matter has been under consideration by the city council of Jacksonville and by invitation Frank J. Heint, cashier of the Farmers State Bank & Trust Co., who has made special study of the road law met in a conference with the council Tuesday morning. Mr. Heint does not pose as an authority on the Tice road law but he has given the measure more study than anybody else hereabouts and when any matter concerning the law is referred to him is willing to give his opinion for whatever it may be worth.

City Can Collect Poll Tax.

Mr. Heint believes that the passage of the Tice law does not interfere at all with the right of the city to collect a poll tax. Under the law it becomes the duty of the county board to convert Jacksonville into a road district either by itself or to make it apart of road district No. 7, which includes the territory contiguous to this city. If the city should be made a part of district No. 7, residents of Jacksonville would have a voice in the election of road commissioners. It would be possible also for one half of the sum raised within the city limits by the road tax to be expended on the roads or streets within the city limits and the remaining portion would be used in the territory outside the city limits. By agreement, however, the entire sum could be spent outside the city.

Last year the road district tax in No. 7, was sixty one cents which resulted in the raising of about $6,000 for the road fund. If Jacksonville were included in this district and the tax was levied at the same rate the fund resulting would be about $26,000. However, such a sum would be far in excess of the needs of the district and the rate would be correspondingly less. It is a fact however that under the road law that bridges must be paid for out of the road tax fund and not from the county tax as has been true in the past. The county has been spending $14,000 or $15,000 a year for bridges and as already suggested this must now come from the road fund. It will therefore be necessary in some road districts to raise a larger sum than in the past to meet the need for bridge replacements as time moves along. In the long run, however, the road tax may be higher on this account the people will be no worse off for they are already paying for such improvements only from another fund.

May Wait Court Ruling.

If the county board should make Jacksonville a road district to itself, then the city could organize with road commissioners and probably no tax would be levied at all. There is a possibility that since the whole Tice law is soon to be acted upon by the Supreme court that the county board may delay action with reference to Jacksonville until a finding is made by the court. If Jacksonville were made apart of a road district it would seem a somewhat reasonable arrangement to become a part of No. 7 because the city is directly interested in the condition of the roads in the territory adjoining it and the people residing in this territory are likewise interested in those roads as forming approaches to Jacksonville. It would be possible for the district as a whole to vote upon the question of changing the number of commissioners from three to one and also upon the question of abolishing the poll tax.

Law is Quoted.

In expressing the belief that the passage of the road law does not interfere with the authority of the city to collect a poll tax Mr. Heint quoted a part of the new law. Under subdivision 3, paragraph 55, referring to the raising of revenue for highway purposes and the application thereof the law says: "(Poll tax) At their annual meeting to be held on the second Tuesday, after the annual town meeting or district election in each year board of highway commissioners shall make out a list of able bodied men in their town or district between the ages of 21 and 50 years and deliver the same to the town or district treasurer on or before the first day of May of each year and assess at such meeting against such person upon such list a sum of not less than one nor more than three dollars as a poll tax for highway purposes to be paid in cash to such treasurer by the first Monday of June of each year. Provided that paupers, idiots lunatics and such others as are exempt by law will not be able to pay a poll tax for highway purposes, provided also that this list shall not include the persons within the limits of cities or incorporated villages."

"The commissioners shall also within ten days after such list delivered to the treasurer of the road and bridge fund cause written or printed notices to be given to each person so assessed notifying him of the time when and place where such taxes must be paid and if this poll tax is not paid by the first Monday in June of such year it shall be the duty of the commissioners of highways in the name of the district or town to bring suit therefor against such persons before some justice of the peace having jurisdiction thereof."

Summons shall be issued and returned in the same manner as provided also that on petition of not less than 25 voters of any town or district to abolish the poll tax submitted to legal voters of said town or district filed with the town or district clerk not less than 15 days before the annual town meeting or annual district election, then the town or district clerk shall state in a notice of the annual town meeting or district election that the legal voters of such town or district may vote by ballot for or against the payment of all poll tax and if a majority of all the ballots cast are against the payment of all poll tax then that part of this section which provides for the levying of poll tax shall no longer be in force in such town or district."

REFUSAL OF UNITED MINE WORKERS TO ACCEPT TERM ENDS CONFERENCE

Union Leaders Declare There Is No Strike Imminent, Although the Wage Agreement Expires Next Week.

Chicago, March 24.—Final refusal of the United Mine Workers of America to accept the terms offered by the bituminous coal mine owners of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois brought to an end here today the joint wage scale conference of the men and the employers.

Although the present wage agreement will expire one week from today and there is no understanding at present under which the men have agreed to continue work, union leaders declare that a strike was not imminent. The policy committee of the United Mine Workers has been summoned to meet here tomorrow and the men's leaders announced they expected to decide upon a line of action that would prevent a labor crisis in the mines. The operators stated the next proposition must come from the men.

"This does not necessarily mean a strike," said W. O. Green, secretary of the United Mine Workers. "The miners' representatives have worked hard in the interest of peace. We will certainly use our best endeavors to outline a settlement."

"When we have agreed upon our policy we will submit terms to the operators, but it is not expected that we will meet them at this time in joint four-states committee." Mr. Green said that the miners modified their offer so that they were willing to accept the agreement in force with the modification that local conditions in different mining districts should be subject to adjustment. The operators, he said, would not assent to this.

The joint committee of the operators and miners met this forenoon and discussed their differences for several hours. After recess they met again for a few minutes and the miners definitely rejected the operators' terms, which were to continue exactly the same as now in force. The meeting then adjourned finally.

W. L. Clark of Springfield, Ill., of the operators' committee, said: "The operators have done all they could do and I now up to the men to make us an offer we can accept." Mr. Clark said, however, that he believed a crisis would be avoided.

LUCK IN PHOTOGRAPHY.

A Suggestion That Grated Upon the Camera Man's Nerves.

When the amateur photographer's friend asked him why he looked peeved the other was glad to explain.

"A friend of ours just asked me to come over and take a picture of her baby," he said. "She apologized for asking, which was unnecessary, because I was glad to do it, but she spilled the beans by giving as her reason that I had such good luck taking pictures."

"Well, you do, don't you?" inquired the friend.

"There you go," the photographer exclaimed. "There is no such thing as luck in my photography. What vexes me is that every one seems to consider them inseparable. Photography is as exact a science as running a survey nowadays with those who know how to handle a camera. With the photometer and exposure tables, proper developer and a thermometer for determining its temperature, every last element of luck is removed from exposure and negative making. The same is true of the printing processes. You know in advance how much light you have and how much you need. Factorial tables tell you how long to leave a plate in the developer. Every step is timed with a stop watch. And that's why it annoys me to have people say that my art is a luck proposition."

"Before I had taken as many pictures as I stand to my record now there was sometimes luck, mostly bad. Although as it appears to me at present, I got better results than I should have obtained. But if a man with a little experience and the proper outfit exercises as much intelligence as is necessary to tell eggs, photography is no longer a matter of luck, and I thank nobody to call me lucky."—Philadelphia Ledger.

AREA OF THE LUNGS.

Nature Has Given Us a Very Liberal Margin of Safety.

Physiologists have long observed that many of the organs necessary to life have much larger capacity than is really necessary. It is generally agreed, for instance, that under ordinary conditions one kidney would serve every purpose, although we are supplied with two. As the same is true of other glands, the conclusion is irresistible that nature, in providing for the various functions upon which our existence depends, has left a very liberal margin of safety. This is especially true of the lungs.

In cases of pneumonia the functions of one lung have been entirely suspended for a time, but life has persisted, as it has in those instances where tuberculosis has very materially curtailed breathing capacity. Such cases have led to experiments in artificially lessening lung areas for a time in order to discover, if possible, what the margin of safety really is.

By introducing inert nitrogen gas into the chest of the subject an artificial pneumothorax is formed which may be varied at will, lung capacity by this means. Contrary to the findings of persons who submit themselves to his investigations get along very well with a quarter of the usual lung capacity. Similar experiments in a Paris hospital show that patients deprived of five-sixths of their breathing capacity suffer very little inconvenience and exhibit no symptoms of the lack of a proper amount of oxygen. The conclusion is that if one can live with one-sixth of his lung power he ought to do very well indeed with a single lung.—Boston Herald.

Lights of Mars.

It is claimed that curious lights have been seen on Mars and have been believed to be signal lights sent by the inhabitants of that distant world. This phenomenon can be easily explained as follows: The prevailing color of Mars is opal. When seen by daylight there is a mingling of this color with a pearl white, a rose saffron, and a robin's egg blue. When the sun's rays stream along its surface at certain angles flashes of curious light are produced that resemble somewhat the color rays of flashlight. These have doubtless, been mistaken by the curious for flashlight signals. They are nothing new.—Christian Herald.

Her Greatest Trial.

A lady, whose husband was the champion snorer of the community in which they resided, confided to a female friend the following painful intelligence:

"My life has not been one of unalloyed delight. I have had the measles, chickenpox, typhoid fever, rheumatism and influenza, but I never knew what real misfortune was until I married a burglar alarm."—Pearson's Weekly.

Classes in Russia.

There is no upper middle class in Russia. A family is either of the peasantry—although this term has now a very wide inclusion—or of the aristocracy. And at court no one has precedence according to inherited rank, only according to official position in the government.

DON'T GROW BALD

It's Quite Needless—Nourish the Hair Roots—Remove Dandruff—Use Parisian Sage.

If your hair is getting thin, losing color, or has that matted, lifeless and scraggy appearance, the reason is evident—dandruff and failure to keep the hair roots properly nourished.

Parisian Sage anointed frequently for a week and then occasionally is all that is needed. It removes dandruff with one application; almost immediately stops falling hair and itching head; cleanses, cools and invigorates the scalp and makes dull, stringy hair soft, abundant and radiant with life. Equally good for men, women or children—everyone needs it.

This refreshing hair tonic can be had at any drug or toilet counter in 50 cent bottles only. Coover & Shreve always sell it with agreement to refund the money if you are not satisfied.

Get a bottle at once. Delighted users say Parisian Sage is the best and most invigorating hair tonic made.—Adv.

LIBERALS DENOUNCE "ARISTOCRAT" MUTINY

OFFICERS OF THIRD CAVALRY BRIGADE WILL NOT BE ORDERED TO FIGHT.

Fact Is Established That the Officers Have Received Assurances That They Will Not Be Ordered Against Ulster—Redmond Declares Ulster Plot More Bluff.

London, March 24.—Westminster continues to be a seething caldron over what the Liberals now denounce as the "mutiny of the army aristocrats" against Democratic government.

The fact has been established from all obtainable evidence that General Hubert Gough and the other officers of the Third Cavalry Brigade demanded and obtained written assurances which had been drafted by a lawyer, that they would not be ordered to fight Sir Edward Carson's Ulster volunteers and that these assurances were obtained largely through the personal intervention of the king.

Before they left London they sent telegraphic messages to their brother officers in Ireland that they had found support "from the highest quarters." On their arrival at Curragh camp today they were welcomed by a guard of honor with cheers.

The throne which was traditionally kept out of party controversies, both because of aloofness and as a point of honor, is involved in the discussion as it has never been before during King George's reign or that of his most diplomatic father. The section of the Liberals who opposed what they denounced as a surrender to the military oligarchy are criticizing the king with the greatest freedom. They resent his action in summoning to the palace, Field Marshal Lord Roberts, who, in his speeches, advised the officers they might properly refuse service in suppressing the Ulster irreconcilables and criticize His Majesty for dealing personally with Field Marshal Sir John French, chief of the general staff and Gen. Sir Arthur Paget, commanding the forces in Ireland who should have been dealt with, they think, only by the secretary of state for war, in accordance with the customary official routine.

To Throw More Light on Situation.
The government has promised to throw more light tomorrow upon the recent history by giving to parliament all the written communications with General Paget and the officers who refused service but how far the negotiations were carried on by written communications remains to be seen.

"Ulster Plot Revealed."
London, March 24.—"The Ulster Orange plot has now been completely revealed," said John E. Redmond, the leader of the Irish Nationalist party in a statement today to the Associated Press.

"Sir Edward Carson and his army have not now and never had the slightest intention of fighting. As a fighting force against the regular troops they could not hold out for a week."

Mr. Redmond continued: "The plan was to put up the appearance of a fight and then by society influence seduce the officers of the British army. By this means they intended to intimidate the government and to defeat the will of the British people. The action of the commanders of some of the crack cavalry regiments officered by aristocrats has now fully disclosed the plan of campaign. The issue now raised is a wider one even than home rule for Ireland. It is whether a Democratic government is to be beaten and dictated to by the drawing rooms of London and by that section of officers of the British army who are aristocrats and violent Tory partisans."

Mechanism of the Ear.
The human ear is a delicate piece of mechanism. That which we ordinarily designate as the "ear" is, after all, only the mere outer porch of a series of winding passages which lead from the world without to the world within. Certain of these passages are filled with fluid, besides having membranes stretched like parchment curtains across the corridor at different points. When a sound wave strikes these they are turned into vibrations and made to tremble like the head of a drum does when struck with a stick or with the fingers. Between two of these parchment-like curtains a chain of minute bones extends, which serves to tighten or relax the membranes and communicate vibrations to them. In the innermost place of all a row of white threads called nerves stretch like the strings of a piano from the last point from which the tremblings reach, passing thence inward to the brain.

Made a Bad Break.
"I think I must have made a bad break last Sunday," mused the fellow who seldom goes to church.

"You see, I got an alumni catalogue of my old school, and in looking through it I found that one of my classmates was the pastor of a Cleveland church. So I called him up, and he said that he was still preaching and that if I wanted to meet him I should come to church on the following Sunday morning, which I did."

"He introduced me to his wife, and she took me into the pew with her. Well, during the sermon I got very drowsy. I was nodding in the middle of the sermon, and the parson's wife touched me on the elbow."

"You seem sleepy," she whispered. "Try some of my snelling salts."

"No; thank you," says I; "I'd rather sleep."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

DEMAND FOR STOCKS FALLS OFF; MARKET LOSES ITS VIGOR

Various Obscure Issues Fluctuate Wildly, But Variations Among Standard Shares Are Insignificant.

New York, March 24.—The demand for stocks fell off today and the market possessed none of the vigor of the preceding session. Various obscure stocks fluctuated widely but among the standard shares variations were insignificant.

Small gains were made at the outset. London which was more cheerful over the latest aspects of the Ulster crisis came into this market as a buyer and took away about 10,000 shares.

Weakness again developed among some of the specialties. Ramsey issues resumed their decline making new low records at 9 for the common and 25½ for the preferred.

Copper shares made no response to continued improvement in the metal market.

TAKE SODA FOR ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, GAS.

A 10 grain Sodagen tablet, taken anytime, followed by a glass of water will instantly neutralize acidity; thus relieving indigestion without fail. Indigestion does not result from a lack of digestive juices as most folks believe, but from an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which retards digestion and starts food fermentation. Then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon producing a heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch up gas or have flatulence, heartburn or nausea.

Any pharmacist can supply a package of these 10 grain Sodagen tablets and thousands of stomach sufferers will be able to eat without dread after ridding the digestive organs of excess acid this way, says a noted authority who further states that this Antacid is entirely harmless, being composed of Soda, Magnesia and Calcium Carbonate U. CHARGES ROYAL BENEFIT SOCIETY WITH JUGGLING INSURANCE FUNDS

State Superintendent of Insurance Asks Receiver for Company and That It Be Restrained From Doing Business in Illinois.

Springfield, March 24.—Juggling of funds and other irregularities are charged against the Royal Benefit society by State Superintendent of Insurance R. M. Potts today who filed a bill in the circuit court asking a receiver for the company and that the society be not permitted to continue business in the state. April 6th was set as the date for hearing.

Thomas L. Wilson, Springfield, is named as president of the company; Otto L. Caldwell, Springfield, treasurer; Charles Brainerd, Peoria, director. It is alleged that the company has been prohibited from transacting business in Virginia and North Carolina. It is also charged that 134 death claims aggregating $43,000 remain unpaid.

Potts charges that the assets of the company total but $50,787.46, with liabilities of at least $78,244.11.

Mr. Wilson, president of the Royal Assured society, has charged that the insurance department was governed by prejudice. Supt. Potts says the records of the insurance department show that no previous examination has ever been made of the books. Potts specifically charges that the funds have been diverted from the Royal Benefit society to the American Assurance company.

NEW YORK, March 24.—A cable message confirming reports of previous reports that Theodore Roosevelt had met with no mishap in Brazil was received at the American Museum of Natural History today in response to an inquiry sent yesterday by the museum to United States Consul Pickrell at Para.

"Roosevelt is all right. Arriving at Manaus by way of Papagayo river," said the consul's message.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 24.—Rev. John R. Ellis, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Bloomington, Ind., has been found guilty and suspended as a minister of the church in the United States by a commission of the Indiana Presbytery. TO INVESTIGATE ASSOCIATION.

San Antonio, Texas, March 24.—An investigation of the Master Plumbers' association, said to be practically nationwide, is being made according to reports here today to determine whether the Sherman law has been violated. Robert L. Barnes, investigator for the United States department of justice, declared today he has been making such examinations and that similar work is in progress in adjacent states. The result of his inquiries has been forwarded to Chicago, where he said, action if taken probably would be filed.

MARKET LETTERS.

Chicago Livestock Market.
Oliver S. Green, with Walter Bros., U. S. Yards, Chicago, reports the estimated receipts for Monday March 23, 1914:

Cattle, 14,500.
Hogs, 40,000.
Sheep, 25,000.

While choice to prime cattle were wanted at strong to 10c higher prices. The depressed beef conditions were a still bearish factor and other grades only steady. Prime Nebraska wt. 1545 to 1600 made $5.70 and numerous lots, $9.25 to 9.40. There was a fairly liberal number of good to choice beefs among the offerings. Most of the medium to good handy weights $8.25 to 8.75 and the bulk of the short fed on the plain order, $7.65 to $8.15 and corn grades down to $7.25 and under. The $8.65 to $9.00 class but little change. She stock strong for good unchanged, for others with a quiet packer call. Bulls dull; calves 10 to 25c lower; light run of stockers and feeders; market firm to 10c higher.

Fat cows, $5.00 to 7.60.
Fancy, few in this case, $7.65 to 8.00.
Heifers, $5.25 to 8.65.
Bulls, $5.40 to 7.25.
Prime yearlings, $7.50 to $8.10.
Canner and cutters $3.50 to 4.90.
Inferior heavy calves to good dealers $5.00 to 8.00.
Choice to prime veals $8.25 to $5.00.

Inferior stockers to good feeders, $5.50 to 7.60.
Choice to prime light to good weights, $7.65 to 7.90.
Choice selected $7.75 to 8.10.

Hogs opened steady to 5c lower. Later dull to 5 to 10c lower. Many goods lots $8.70, with a top for several loads, $8.85.

Light weights, $8.55 to 8.75.
Pigs and throw outs, $2.00 to 9.35.
Poor to good heavy packing $8.40 to 8.65.
Bulk lambs steady to strong. Sheep and yearlings strong to 10c higher. Several loads of lambs reached $7.90.
Native lambs, $6.25 to 7.65.
Western, $4.50 to 6.00.
Native ewes, $4.00 to 6.65.
Colorado lambs, $7.00 to 7.90.
Shorn western lambs, $6.15 to $6.80.

KANSAS CITY MARKETS.

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 23, 1914.—Trade in stockers and feeders last week lost most of its dash after Tuesday, and sales late in the week looked 10 to 25 cents lower than the opening. At the best time an Iowa man paid $8.40 for some 1150 lb. half fat steers, which had market topping ability, and prime yearling stockers sold at $8.25, but bulk of the transactions were at $7 to $8. At this time last year top stockers and feeders sold up to $8.50. Shipments last week were 12,000 head, as compared with 10,000 head corresponding week last year. The greatest call is for stock grades, because of the disappointing action of the beef steer market recently, which discourages putting cattle into feed lots. Dealers in concentrated feeds say their sales since the first of the year have been extremely light, which is some indication that there is not the usual number of cattle on feed for the spring and early summer market. This should point to strong prices in April and May for finished cattle. On the other hand, imports of Argentine meat, some of which corresponds to the beef from our $8 to $8.40 steers, promises to be heavy in April, and possibly later. Hot weather, however, will make distribution of meat, that has spent several weeks' time in transportation difficult, and will discourage importation. The cattle supply today is 3,000 head, containing a liberal share of stockers and feeders. Added to a hold over of 7,000 head, it makes a good line to choose from, and prices are steady to weak. A string of 8 cars of well kept Colorado steers sold to feeders at $7.50, and a 10 car drive weighing 970 lbs. at $7.45. Fed steers are steady today, butcher grades strong to 10c higher.

THE BEST DRESSED MEN AND

at Easter Time Will be the Tailored - to - Order

Why? Because so many now have learned that they can be smartly, stylishly and accurately dressed, in made-to-order suits, and top coats, that fit, for the same money that more or less ill-fitting and unsatisfactory made-for-anybody garments cost. Then, too, in addition to having a suit or top coat that has individuality and is a perfect fit, they have had the opportunity to select from among thousands a pattern that they always will like and that their friends will admire. The cost for these garments, suits or top coats, made to your individual measure from the latest patterns and in the new styles, and guaranteed satisfactory will be $20.00 to $30.00

and will be Ready for Easter

That is exactly what we are showing—the very latest patterns, in the whole piece so you can get a good idea how a garment will look when made up, and prices less than you often have paid for unsatisfactory ready made. Minneapolis Grain Market

Minneapolis, March 24.—Extreme quiet prevailed at the opening of the local wheat market today and the same conditions prevailed through the forenoon. Slightly bearish reports from the winter wheat districts caused a fractionally lower opening in the options and moved in a narrow range, the fluctuation being not more than 1c.

BALLAD OF THE BEGINNER.

Old Jasper stout upon the street,
Where motor horns most hoot and bray,
Surprised me as on gouty feet
He hopped as nimbly as a fay.
I smiled to hear his angry "Hey!"
I did not miss him very far,
So I called back with manner gay,
"Who says I cannot drive a car?"

Our lawn was lately smooth and neat—
The drive's its straight and narrow way
Now furrowed turf your eye will meet,
For over it my wheels will stray.
Our pup is dead, the children play
Inside the house, so naught shall mar
The hour when I smile and say,
"Who says I cannot drive a car?"

Ill-natured prophets I shall cheat—
What! break my neck? Not I! Nay, nay!
I hardly like to stop to eat—
I get so out of practice, say—
But, though I'm lately growing gray,
Some time, as skilled as chauffeurs are,
I shall not miss a single day
Who says I cannot drive a car.

LENNOL
Good neighbors, though you show dismay,
I was born "neath a lucky star."
I'm fit and eager for the fray—
Who says I cannot drive a car?
—New York Globe.

The Chief Concern.

Son—Dad, when you put a hen on eggs to hatch them, do you say she is "sitting" or "setting"? A hen can't really sit, can she?
Dad—Don't bother about little things like that. What concerns me most is to know when she cackles whether she has laid or fled.—Philadelphia Press.

EXCELLENT SHOW

AT THE GRAND

The Joe J. Smith Musical Comedy Co., at the Grand this week is certainly a clean organization and their efforts have met with instant favor. There are fourteen people with the show, mostly clever singing and dancing girls and every one is a finished performer. Joe J. Smith, the principal comedian, is a fun-maker of exceptional ability and he is ably seconded by Jack Ogle in Dutch. Ben Tillson is immense in straight roles and is a remarkably fine singer. Miss Claire Curtis, the leading lady is an artist of the finest calibre and puts over her numbers in a manner to suit the most fastidious. Miss Edna Drea, is a lively sorbrette and is a dainty, demure and charming. Frances Savage is good in character roles and she has a pleasing personality. The chorus girls are pretty, shapely, can sing and dance, and know how to wear classy clothes. In fact, the whole show is one that gives full and pleasing satisfaction.

Starting this afternoon, the company will present Weber & Field's world famous comedy, "The Whirligig," which is said to be brimful of all the things that go to make up a real musical comedy. Popular prices prevail, 5 and 10 cents. Manager Boyd is to be congratulated for having secured the services of this clever company. In conjunction with the company, the latest pictures are shown.

STATE FACTORY INSPECTOR GIVES LECTURE AT LIBRARY.

Oscar F. Nelson of Chicago Describes Work of Department in Illustrated Address.

One of the most interesting numbers of the Tuesday evening series took place this week at the public library when Oscar F. Nelson of Chicago gave a stereopticon lecture on the work of the Illinois Department of Factory Inspection, of which he is chief. The slides were well selected and of high grade and Mr. Nelson's talk was full of facts regarding the work of this important branch of the state governmental service.

Among the duties of the Illinois Department of Factory Inspection are the enforcement of the "Health, Safety and Comfort" law, regulation of sweated industries, the prevention of violations of the child labor statutes and the protection of women in industry.

MANY TEACHERS EXPECTED AT ASSOCIATION MEETING

Estimated That Fifteen Hundred Pedagogues Will Be in Attendance—Aim of Association Outlined in Resolutions.

Indications point to a large attendance at the Central Division of the State Teachers' association which holds a two days' session here Friday and Saturday. It is estimated that fifteen hundred teachers will be here; Springfield alone will send over 200, who expect to come on a special train. The entire faculty of the Normal school will be present and many are expected from the larger cities. From the inquiries coming in the sessions promise to be unusually interesting and many phases of school life will be discussed by able educators.

The local committee consisting of W. A. Gore, C. E. Collins, Clara Cobb, Agnes Luck, Elizabeth Higler, W. H. P. Huber, H. C. Montgomery, Agnes Paxton, Edith Dunlap, Laura C. White, Paul Morrison and the various sub-committees have been at work perfecting plans for the entertainment of the visitors in the city. Everything is practically rearranged for their accommodation. Rooms have already been engaged in hotels. Headquarters will be at Grace M. E. church where booths will be fitted up and information of every kind can be easily gleaned.

The teachers of the entire state are working for several important changes for the betterment of school conditions. Among the most important are the minimum wage law for teachers and a teachers' pension law. The following resolutions were endorsed at the last meeting of the State Teachers' association:

1. We express our appreciation of the legislation, adding one million dollars to the distributable school fund and that we ask a biennial increase of a million dollars to this fund, until it shall equal a two mill tax on the total value of the property of the state, at which time the two mill rate shall become the fixed rate for this appropriation.

2. That we favor a minimum wage law for teachers.

3. That we favor a teachers' pension law which shall be state-wide in its application and which shall not in any way impair the existing agreements in force at the state nor deprive the teachers who have contributed of their present rights in the control of the funds which they have contributed.

4. That we favor a larger school unit for taxation and administration.

5. That we favor legislation which shall empower boards of education to employ superintendents, principals and teachers for a longer term of years.

6. We favor a law requiring the erection of school houses on plans providing for proper heating, lighting, ventilation, seating and other sanitary arrangements, as approved by the department of public instruction.

7. That we favor the establishment of vocational courses as part of the present school system and under the present school boards and that we strongly oppose the establishment of separate schools under separate boards of education.

8. That we favor a law providing for the transportation of pupils to and from consolidated schools at public expense.

9. That we favor an educational survey of the state conducted by the state department of public instruction in collaboration with the school of education of our state university, our several state normal schools and each other educational institutions as may wish to participate.

10. That we favor the organization of a section of the State Teachers' association for the consideration of questions relating to moral and religious instruction.

11. That we favor a larger use of the school property for social centers for other community purposes.

12. That we favor a law prohibiting the sale of cigars in the state.

ARE PLANNING CLEAN-UP WEEK FOR CITY OF JACKSONVILLE

Committees Meet Tuesday Afternoon for Preliminary Arrangements—Will Co-operate With City Administration and Park Board.

"A clean-up week for Jacksonville" was the subject of discussion Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of representatives of various civic organizations in the Chamber of Commerce rooms on East State street. The date for the campaign has not yet been fixed upon but the different committees and sub-committees who will have the work in charge are in course of selection and a definite plan of action will be announced within a short time. As discussed Tuesday evening at a meeting of the executive committee at the home of the chairman, Mrs. David H. Reid, the general clean-up committee will form ward organizations and will co-operate with the health department, the department of streets and highways and the park board. They will work in conjunction also with the public schools of the city.

Besides the members of the special committee appointed to look after the campaign there were present at the meeting Tuesday representatives of the Woman's club, the Civic League, the Booster club, the Chamber of Commerce, the Bar Association and the Morgan County Medical society. An invitation has been extended the Ministerial association to send a representative to future committee meetings. Those present at the above mentioned meeting were Mrs. David H. Reid, general chairman; Miss Annie Hinrichsen, secretary; Mrs. Louis Engel, Mrs. J. N. Ward, Mrs. C. E. Patchen, Mrs. J. R. Stice, Mrs. E. P. Chary, Mrs. I. H. Buckner, Mrs. L. O. Stewart, Mrs. W. S. Badger, L. O. Yount, Dr. W. P. Duncan, Dr. Carl E. Black, Roy Potter, William Newman, Paul B. Fritchey and J. J. Reeve.

Among the topics of discussion were the plan of campaign, the providing of rewards for children, the improvement of the parks and the stationing of permanent garbage receptacles on the square and at street intersections in the congested district. The work of school children has been one of the most important factors of success in such campaigns as held in other cities.

A Preliminary Clean-up.
"Clean up your places at once and have your yards in good shape by the time of the big teachers' convention," was a suggestion which met with the hearty approval of everyone at this meeting. Many of the delegates to the convention have never before been in Jacksonville. They have heard of this city as the "Athens of the West." It behooves every householder and citizen to see that his premises appear as well as possible by Friday, the opening day of the convention.

A pleasant evening was spent with games and music and prizes were awarded to Misses Esther Spoonis, Margaret Donahue, Julia Jones, Grace and Virginia Baptist. During the evening refreshments were served.

The Christian Endeavor society of Central Christian church held its spring birthday social Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. L. Hayden, 344 West College avenue, with forty-one members and friends in attendance. The affair was in the nature of a children's party and the refreshments, games and costumes of the guests were planned to suggest the days of childhood. The members of the society who have birthdays during the months of January, February, March and April are Mrs. Roland Stice, Miss Forrestine Smith, Miss Hildegarde Rose, Miss Esther Carlson, Miss Grace McCarty, Miss Elie Pratt, Miss Lois Harden, Rev. Clyde Darsie, Davis Martin, Clay Apple and Harry Walker.

The deaf of Jacksonville met last evening at the home of Mrs. H. A. Molohon, in honor of the birthday of the late Dr. Philip G. Gillett, which occurred yesterday. For 37½ years Dr. Gillett was superintendent of the school. He passed away in 1901. In several places in the state the memory of Dr. Gillett is honored by meetings, similar to the one held last evening. The deaf are endeavoring to raise a fund to build a home for the Aged and Infirm Deaf of the State of Illinois. Already $12,000 has been subscribed and the deaf are raising the fund by their own efforts, asking no outside aid. At the Molohon home the evening was spent in playing games and a good social time was enjoyed.

DENY COMPANY SOUGHT TO INFLUENCE INSPECTOR.
Washington, March 24.—Secretary Daniels today conferred with A. L. Hopkins, president and Homer L. Ferguson, general manager of the Newport News, Va., ship building company, concerning reports reaching the navy department that representatives of the company had sought to influence Lieut. Commander Charles P. Huff in his inspections of the Battleship Texas while the vessel was in course of construction.

Both officials seriously denied that there was any truth in the report. The conference will be continued tomorrow. The insinuations against the company, it was stated, emanated from statements by Commander Pollock, who acted as Huff's counsel during the recent court martial of that officer for assaulting J. P. Kiesecker, an employee of the ship building company. Commander Pollock has been called upon to give the department an explanation of his remarks.

Secretary Daniels has not acted upon the findings of the court, sentencing Huff to the loss of five numbers in grade and to receive a public reprimand.

DEFEAT POLICE BILL.
Albany, N. Y., March 24.—The New York police bill was defeated in the assembly today by a vote of 94 to 49.

The bill was designed to increase the power of the New York city police commissioner. The measure was introduced at the request of Mayor Mitchell after he had asked Colonel George W. Goethals to accept the police commissionership and the colonel replied that he would not consider the office unless given wider authority than is allowed at present.
